

Atlantic Power Announces Repricing of APLP Holdings Term Loan and Revolver

DEDHAM, Mass., April 17, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Atlantic Power Corporation (NYSE: AT) (TSX: ATP) ("Atlantic Power" or the "Company") announced effective today a repricing of the $615 million senior secured term loan and $200 million senior secured revolving credit facility at its APLP Holdings Limited Partnership ("APLP Holdings") subsidiary. The interest rate margin on the term loan and revolver has been reduced by 75 basis points to LIBOR plus 425 basis points. The LIBOR floor remains at 1.00%. The mandatory 1% annual amortization and cash sweep provisions of the term loan are unchanged.

As a result of the repricing, the Company expects to realize interest cost savings for the remainder of 2017 of $2.4 million, net of fees related to the transaction that will be recorded in the second quarter. Cumulative savings through the maturity dates of the term loan (April 2023) and revolver (April 2021) are estimated to be approximately $17 million, net of transaction fees.

The Company is permitted to prepay the term loan in the first six months following this transaction at a 1% premium. Following the six-month period, prepayment is permitted at par.

"We are pleased to have achieved a reduction in the cost of our term loan and revolver, which will increase our cash flow," said Terrence Ronan, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Atlantic Power. "The tighter spread was the result of improved credit market conditions as well as the progress we have made in reducing our leverage, which we expect will continue with debt reduction of $150 million or more in 2017."
